The LGBTQ+ Faculty and Staff Caucus is deeply committed to antiracism and strongly stands against all forms of white supremacy, including the anti-Black killings of George Floyd, Tony McDade, Breonna Taylor, Ahmaud Arbery and thousands of others.

We recognize the interconnectedness of queer, racial, gender, ableist, sexual, and all forms of oppression. Because we are a community that includes BIPOC (black, indigenous, and people of color), anti-Black violence and anti-Black oppression is by definition an LGBTQ issue.

We stand in solidarity with those who resist white supremacy.
