Template for NSF Senior Personnel Synergistic Activities
For use with NSF PAPPG 24-1 (effective May 20, 2024)

"Each individual identified as a senior/key person must provide a document of up to one-page that includes a list of up to five distinct examples that demonstrates the broader impact of the individual's professional and scholarly activities that focus on the integration and transfer of knowledge as well as its creation. Senior/key personnel must prepare, save, and submit these documents as part of their proposal via Research.gov or Grants.gov.

Examples may include, among others: innovations in teaching and training; contributions to the science of learning; development and/or refinement of research tools; computation methodologies and algorithms for problem-solving; development of databases to support research and education; broadening the participation of groups underrepresented in STEM; participation in international research collaborations; participation in national and/or international standards development efforts; and service to the scientific and engineering community outside of the individual's immediate organization."

Synergistic Activities:

List five distinct examples of synergistic activities that demonstrate the broader impact of your professional and scholarly activities that focus on the integration and transfer of knowledge as well as its creation.

Each item must be one activity and must not be followed by a listing of additional sub-activities. For example, it is acceptable to summarize that the PI served on ten review panels, however, the PI must not list the specific panels for that distinct example.
